Investor process for GfA

The provisional insolvency administrator will initiate an M&A process for this purpose within the next few days. GfA Tagesstätten GmbH offers attractive opportunities for investors: the company operates ten adult day care centres in Brandenburg and another two in Berlin. The care staff at these centres look after and support older people who require assistance and care during the day but still live in their own homes. If required, the staff collect the elderly service users from their homes in the morning and then drop them back again later.

GfA Tagesstätten GmbH, which is part of the Pflegewerk Group, is run from its headquarters in Wisbyer Straße in Berlin. Pflegewerk Berlin GmbH has already been under insolvency administration since October 2025. Attorney Mr Frank Brachwitz is also the insolvency administrator for these proceedings. He and his team have managed to keep the business operating over the past six months and more.
