Töpfer debtor-in-possession proceedings successfully concluded: creditors to benefit from high recovery rate

16 January 2025 · Kempten · Business Area: Restructuring

The management team at Töpfer GmbH and the restructuring experts at PLUTA have announced positive news in the debtor-in-possession proceedings for baby food manufacturer Töpfer: the creditors and shareholders have unanimously approved the restructuring plan at the discussion and voting meeting held at the Local Court of Kempten on 15 January 2025. This means that the proceedings can soon be concluded.

Töpfer GmbH based in Dietmannsried achieved an investor solution within the context of an insolvency plan back in August 2024. This transaction, which has already been completed, gives the company prospects for long-term market success. Investor TCF Capital has significant experience in the grocery business and other sectors.

Töpfer has been involved in debtor-in-possession proceedings since April 2024. A restructuring team from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has been supporting the manufacturer of organic baby food during this period, with Mr Ludwig Stern and Mr Florian Zistler acting as general agents. The insolvency monitor, Professor Dr Martin Hörmann, an attorney from law firm Anchor, has been overseeing the proceedings and representing the interests of the creditors.

High recovery rate for creditors

Under the terms of the insolvency plan, the creditors are guaranteed a recovery rate of 43%. The plan also envisages what is known as a debtor warrant, that may even take the rate to an exceptionally high 56%.

PLUTA attorney Mr Florian Zistler expressed his satisfaction with the outcome: "I am delighted that we can now soon conclude the proceedings. This positive outcome has only been possible thanks to the constructive collaboration and tireless efforts of everyone involved." Insolvency recovery rates tend to be in the mid-single-digit range on average. "This is an exceptional recovery rate and a welcome result for the creditors," added insolvency monitor Professor Dr Martin Hörmann.

Töpfer Babywelt is a long-established brand and will continue to produce premium organic baby food going forward. Consumers will still be able to purchase its products and know they are getting the same great quality. At the investor's request, managing directors Ms Susanna Gabler and Mr Ulf Silbernagel will continue to work for the company.
