PLUTA expands its presence in the region around Osnabrück – Marc Selker and team join PLUTA

24 October 2025 · Osnabrück

PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH remains on a growth path and is further expanding its presence in the Westphalia and Northwest regions of Germany.

Attorney Mr Marc Selker has joined PLUTA with his team and is now co-managing PLUTA's Osnabrück office alongside existing managing partner Mr Stefan Meyer. Staff there work closely with their colleagues in Münster and Bielefeld, as well as in other locations in the Westphalia/East Westphalia and Northwest regions.

After several years running his own medium-sized law firm, Mr Marc Selker decided to join PLUTA. The attorney specialising in insolvency law was not alone in taking this step – attorney Ms Alena Pecher, a business lawyer, and six other members of staff have also moved with him to PLUTA.

“PLUTA gives me and my team an exciting opportunity to further establish ourselves and grow within a dynamic market environment. PLUTA's market position and presence all across Germany in the field of insolvency and restructuring are key factors in this. I am particularly looking forward to engaging with my new colleagues at the other PLUTA locations,” said Mr Marc Selker.

“We are further expanding our presence with Mr Marc Selker and his team. With him, we are gaining an insolvency administrator who has been appointed by various courts in the Westphalia and Northwest regions for many years. I am delighted that we now get to work together,” said PLUTA managing partner Mr Stefan Meyer.
