PLUTA strengthens its team in Italy

26 March 2025 · Milan

PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has strengthened its Italian branch office by welcoming attorney Mr Armando Perna. He has more than 15 years of experience in insolvency, restructuring and distressed M&A, including cross-border transactions and special situations.

Mr Perna has been appointed branch manager jointly with Mr Vittorio Cardano and will be responsible for the development of PLUTA's business in the Italian market. The duo will also leverage synergies with PLUTA's international network.

Managing partner Dr Maximilian Pluta said, "Our strategy at PLUTA is to strengthen our team with attorneys that can assist national and international companies. Mr Perna is the perfect addition thanks to his legal and language skills as well as his network in Italy. We are delighted to welcome him to PLUTA. He will contribute in an important way to the success of our clients."

Mr Vittorio Cardano said, "PLUTA is growing in Italy – also thanks to the collaboration with Germany. With Mr Perna, we have an excellent colleague with international experience who will assist our clients in the corporate and restructuring sectors. We are looking forward to the collaboration."

Mr Armando Perna said, "I am delighted to be joining the PLUTA team. The Italian branch office has an impressive
